Some days, weeks, and months, you wake up and the last thing you want to be is your "best self". You want to be depressed. Unkempt. Rude. Hide from the world. Rarely can we do this. So, you get up and...face life. Face the world. Face your friends, family, and colleagues. Face your pets. And you find a way to smile. To be kind. To compliment someone. To find joy in a sunrise or the sight of a rainbow.

You don't feel like your best self when you fall apart, but you have to fall apart to become your best self. – Richie Norton

To be your best self does not mean being fake. It does not mean you are insincere. If you feel rotten, feel rotten. Love yourself, though, in the meantime. Take care of yourself physically, mentally, and emotionally. Love others. Be kind. Show others you care. Whatever you are going through, give love.

Be Your Best Self by Giving

Christmas is often referred to as the season of getting. What really brings happiness, though, is giving to others. You do not have to give presents. You can ask someone going through a challenging time how you can help them. You can offer to open the door for a parent struggling with a stroller. You can choose to forgive a wrong, although you do not have to restore someone into your life.

Life will give you highs and lows. When the lows hit, think highly of yourself. Fess up to any mistakes and then move on. Be confident. Let your worries go. The moment you are confident in yourself and take responsibility for your actions, then you are a success. Be your best self by giving love and respect to others and to yourself. The difference between failure and success is often an attitude adjustment.

- I think this post shows the struggle with depression can cause someone. You don't want to act the way you probaly would infront of your friends and family because of something you might have said thst embarrsed you.

- Before posting on the internet, you need to think so here are my 5 tips
- 1. Make sure what you post won't affect you many years to come.
- 2. Before going to meet up with someone online ask for a photo then reverse image search it.
- 3. Respect other people's opinions online.
- 4. Don't believe everything you see online
- 5. Be responsible with the information from other people or yourself online like your credit card information for example.
