SECTION D: HIT THE POST

I CHOSE THIS POST BECAUSE SHE WRITES ABOUT HOW YOU CAN RECREATE MEANING DURING THE PANDEMIC EVEN THOUGH MEANING IS LOST. THE PANDEMIC HAS ROBBED US OF SO MANY POTENTIAL SIGNIFICANT MOMENTS THAT COULD'VE MARKED OUR LIVES, YET SHE SHEDS LIGHT AND INSPIRATION DURING THESE DIFFICULT DARK TIMES. THE FIRST THING SHE WROTE ON HOW TO RECREATE MEANING, IS TO REVISIT YOUR VALUES. NOW MORE THAN EVER WE ARE WITH OURSELVES RATHER THAN SURROUNDED BY PEOPLE ALL THE TIME, WHICH GIVES US THE OPPORTUNITY TO TRULY REFLECT ON OUR INDIVIDUAL VALUES. THIS POST IS MEANINGFUL AND INSPIRATIONAL TO ME, ESPECIALLY NOW BECAUSE IT GIVES YOU A DRIVE OR MEANING TO USE THIS PRECIOUS TIME ON YOURSELF, TO FIGURE OUT WHO YOU ARE, WHAT'S IMPORTANT TO YOU, YOUR GROWTHS AND STRENGTHS, NEW GOALS TO SET AND SO MUCH MORE.

Recreate Meaning When Meaning is Lost

Many of us have similar stories of losing important pieces of our lives. And those pieces are all tied to our personal stories. Meaning is an anchor that connects us to the world. Without it, we remain adrift. We're just moving along.

The pandemic has robbed us of milestones, livelihoods, jobs, events, and so much more. We're all searching for ways to fill the holes, and this is made much harder in this tense atmosphere. But we can recreate meaning to build and maintain our connections to ourselves and to others, especially in a world that reminds us that life is fragile.

1. Revisit your values.

Family, creativity, knowledge, fun, service. What do you find important in life? Our values cement our understanding of who we are and what we want. They lead us to the people and opportunities that fill our lives with meaning and joy.

Helping people—showing others love—is important to me. While I can't currently help how I previously did, I am capable of showing love to friends, family, and those who need a hand. I believe love is how we can get through the pandemic.

Creating is something that I also value, namely writing. Journaling helps me connect to myself, and writing articles like this gives me the chance to help others.

Retell your story. Retrace the steps that led to your values.

• 5 TIPS TO BE A SAFE/RESPONSIBLE •

DIGITAL CITIZEN

1

THE GOLDEN RULE

"Do unto others as you would have them do unto you". Be respectful to others and think before you post. Make sure to ask people that are in your photo if they would be okay with you posting it.

DON'T PLAGIARIZE

Plagiarism isn't cool, whether its academically or by taking a screenshot of a meme. Instead of taking credits for someone else's idea, meme, photo or quote, cite your sources or get the permission needed from the owner.

3

SAFETY 1ST, 2ND, & 3RD

Be aware of the information you share online or anywhere in the internet, this includes full name, address/location, age, passwords and any personal details.

4

ASK FOR HELP

If you see something online whether its targeted to you or not, but make you and others uncomfortable reach out to a trusted adult, it can be you parent, guardian, teacher etc.

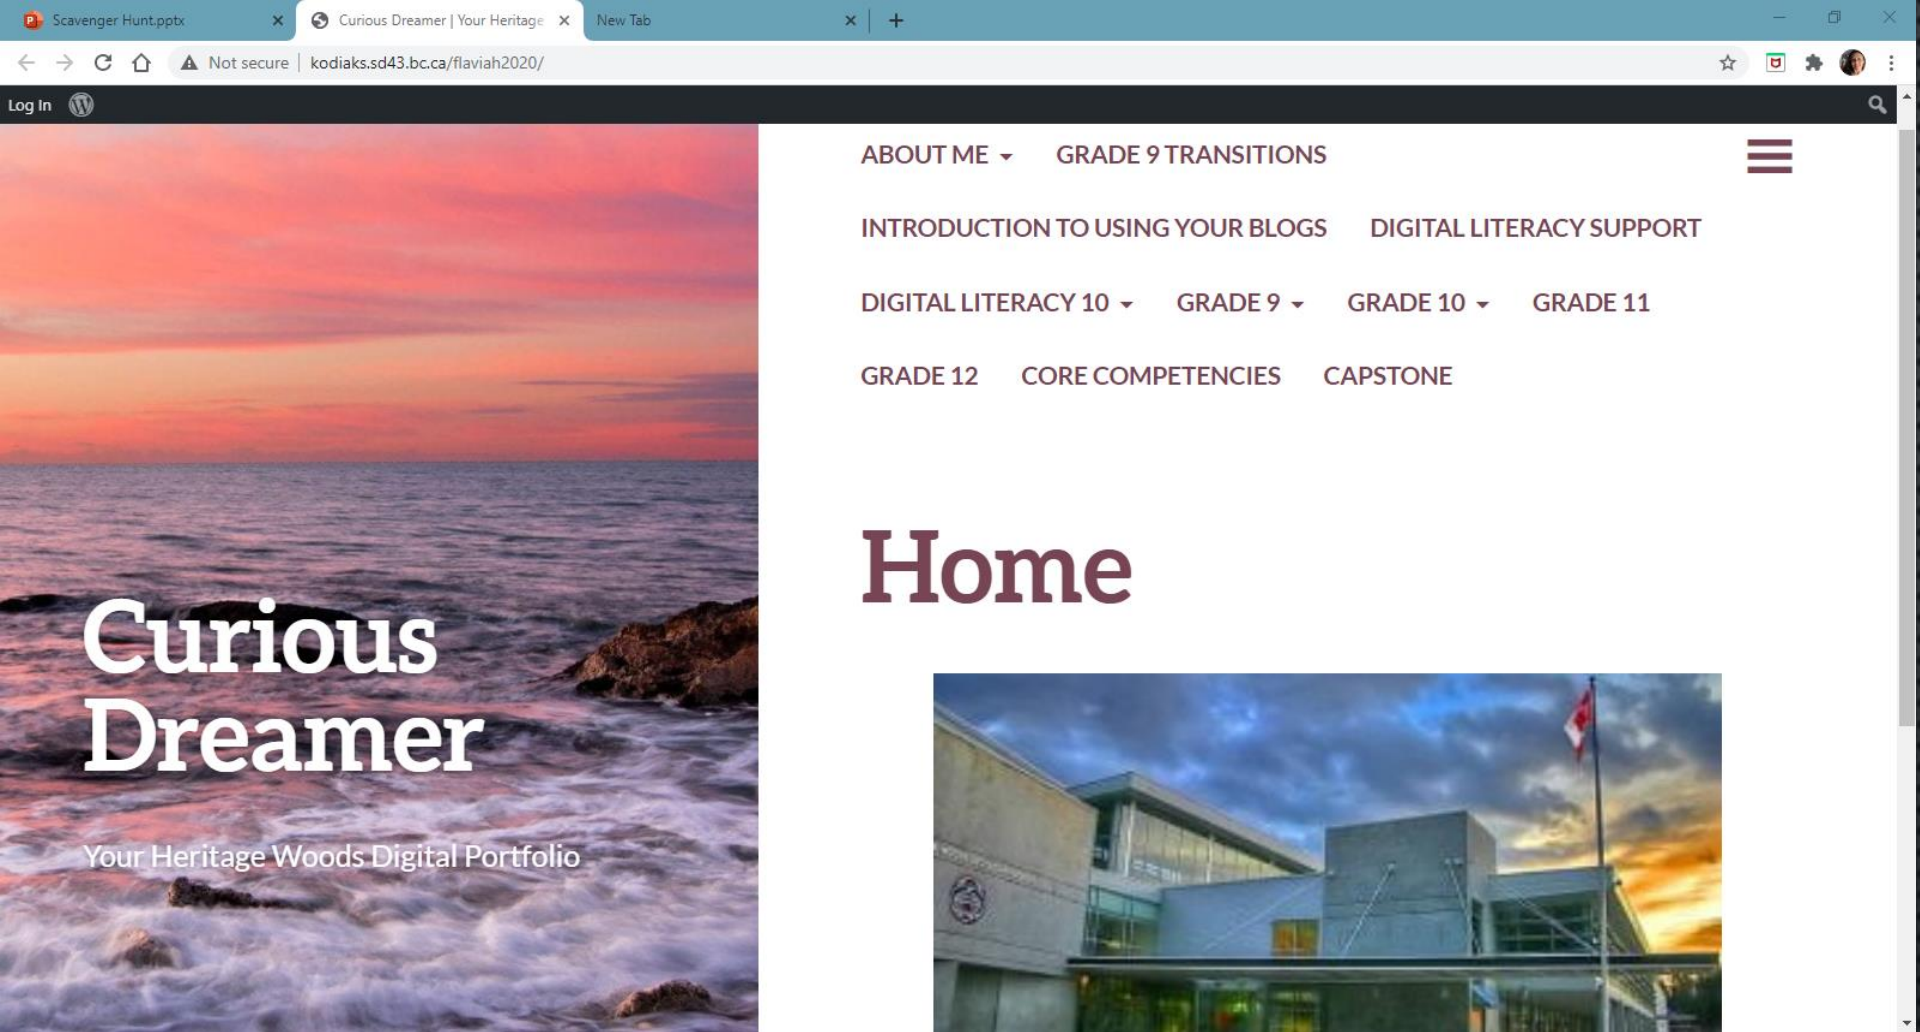

5

FAKE NEWS EXIST

Not everything in the internet is completely truthful, fake news is everywhere. When researching or reading information somewhere in the internet make sure it's from a trustworthy source.
