- The Answer is, You are Office 365 found at office.com and logged in using you student account.
- I found this out because it is the most obvious thing because of how much we use office365 for school work.

Section C

- Recipe: Oven Fries, Yet Crispier than deep fried.

- Cook: Adam Ragusea

- Twist: The fries are made in the oven which means they are much easier to make while also being a tad bit healthier, yet they are still very crisp.

I chose this quote because I feel like it is very true, you need failure to find true success in my opinion.

6. “If you are not falling down occasionally, you are just coasting.” — Kevin Kelly

Anything worth doing comes with some form of struggle. Without risk, there’s no reward. Real growth comes from getting out of your comfort zone and doing things that scare you. Hard things. Things that may hurt you or make you feel uncomfortable.

Take this article as an example, I’ve been a big fan of Addicted2Success for years, and despite my previous writing success, I still found myself afraid of pitching this article. I feared I might not measure up to their quality standards. That I might get rejected or ignored. I can’t let fear dictate my actions, though. I can’t allow myself to coast. I have to move forward and accept that there’s a possibility you’ll never read this because it wasn’t good enough.

Digital Citizenship Guidelines

1. Be respectful, to yourself and others, people on the internet are still people.
2. Never give personal information address, name, phone number and passwords to complete strangers
3. Share only true information and never spread false rumours.
4. If someone is bullying you online, block them and don't engage in argument and report.
5. If you see someone being bullied report the person so they have a higher chance of being banned.
